Introduction

Your animals can be your best friends in life. Just like us, they also have their unique personalities. We may not always know their exact time of birth but we can still look at the chart for the day of birth and determine an incredible amount of information. If the exact time is unavailable a Sun sign chart will be used as the basis for the chart. We can benefit by knowing where our pets' full potential might be met. And like our human friends there may also be difficult areas of their personalities, which we must learn to accept or correct. Not all dogs are suited for agility or obedience. Some will do better at guarding their masters; others might behave well in conformation. By understanding the potential of our dogs we seek ways to improve what already exists and accept things that are sometimes unchangeable or a challenge.

There are 4 basic elements that make up a chart; they are earth, water, air and fire. If Toldin has 4 or more planets in one of these elements he is considered to have more than average. By giving a weight or number to these planets we can determine if the chart has tendencies that would be influenced by being overweighted in that particular element. The Ascendant, Midheaven and planets on the angles are also given a number, which is included in determining the makeup of a chart.

This birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth. For the benefit of students of astrology, these positions, along with other technical information, are listed below:

Element Emphasis

Air Sign Emphasis: (Score of 7,7,3,11)

Toldin has an abundance of air in his chart. This makes Toldin high-strung and ready for action. He could run circles around you and other animals in the household. Tuned in to your every movement, Toldin senses when you're ready to move or do anything he can be included in. Toldin needs to have a job that will put his intelligence to use constructively. If left alone, Toldin can display destructive tendencies due to boredom. Leave the TV or radio on when alone so his active mind has some stimuli to keep negative behavior away. Give him a job. Herding other small animals or occasionally watching over children could be just what he needs to keep his busy mind active. As a companion pet, Toldin proves very entertaining and can be the life of the party. The social element or diplomat in a house of other pets. Toldin loves to travel and will beat you to the door when he hears keys rattle.

Ascendant

The ascendant, or sign on the horizon at birth, changes approximately every 2 hours. To get a true picture of an animal a time of birth is very helpful. From the ascendant, not only do we learn the appearance and characteristics of an animal, we also derive a pattern for the chart itself. The ascendant is the face we show to strangers, animal and human alike. We may view Toldin as his Sun sign, but others will see the sign on the ascendant. The rising sign dictates how Toldin portrays himself to others. These characteristics are entirely different from what we see on the home front. Learn more about how others see Toldin.

Gemini Rising:

Toldin is the social animal of the house and probably the neighborhood. Always trying to get your attention he is in perpetual motion. The ringleader in a group of animals but not afraid to be submissive. Sly enough to outsmart you. Keep Toldin on high maintenance with frequent walks and exercise routines that could be as simple as visiting the dog next door. A popular dog in the neighborhood, Toldin would miss his daily excursions through town, often greeting those along his way with a friendly bark and cold nose. Everyone knows Toldin. He tries to communicate all the time, often getting quite frustrated in the process - he will shred things to pieces when he realizes he can't get your attention. Needs other animals for company if your constant presence is unavailable. Toldin needs the stimuli so be sure you leave the TV or radio on for him when you are gone. Quick and agile in movement, Toldin will enjoy agility training; try using this as a game you can both enjoy routinely. Teach Toldin the skills he will need to do well in agility. Bird hunting and retrieving is something Toldin would excel at. Toldin may also enjoy travelling back and forth to work and doing chores with you. Toldin could be quite thin at times due to his overactive nature with constant motion even a marathoner would admire.

Sun

Sun Signs give the basic identity of an animal. This is the real side you will see once he trusts you enough to show it to you. Although not always apparent to strangers, to those he lives with, there is no question what Toldin is really like. The basic needs and patterns in life are strongly governed by the Sun. Toldin makes big changes and all follow. He sees to it that others will benefit from his protection. Leave him in charge of the flock, herd or just the neighborhood children; you can rest assured there is no one that would dare intrude. Toldin is friendly to all once the pecking order is understood.

Saturn

Saturn in your dog's chart represents the disciplinarian or authority figure. This could be you or his own canine mother. This is the person who sets the limits on obedience and how Toldin behaves. The rules learned here become known as Toldin's personal boundaries. Boundaries and limits are meant to be challenged - Toldin instinctively knows how far he can push you. By learning where Saturn is in Toldin's chart we find how to manage behavior with a disciplinarian approach he can live with.

Saturn in Gemini:

Toldin has more than one disciplinarian in his life. It could be you and a trainer, or you and other members in the family. He is used to being adaptable and uses discretion before responding to just anyone. Boundaries and limits change between the different disciplinarians and he knows who to push for what.

Saturn in the 1st house:

Toldin came from sparse or difficult beginnings and survived. He met you and has become an assertive, wonderful animal. Being smaller in frame does not stop Toldin from being the first to venture onto new territory. "Follow me - I'll show you the way," is what Toldin tells other animals. Often found leading the pack.

Saturn Square Sun:

If there weren't obstacles along the way, Toldin would find life just a little too boring. He looks for a challenge and usually finds it, starting at home. Toldin, being the new member in the household, may have to prove himself before gaining acceptance in the pecking order. A little extra attention and work can make succeeding with Toldin all the more pleasurable. This is one hard working dog that won't disappoint you.

Saturn Trine Uranus:

Toldin handles change better than most and becomes bored with routine quickly. Highly intelligent, Toldin is able to apply this to practical situations, using his intuition as well as his senses to find objects. His highly tuned nervous system can alert you to danger at a moment's notice. This could be a dog that may be trained to also warn you of sudden health changes such as seizures. He is so attentive and sensitive to your nervous system he can detect change before it happens.

Uranus

Uranus, the planet of change and excitement, remains in a sign for approximately 7 years. For this reason it is considered one of the generational planets, affecting large groups of dogs born during the period. Uranus shows us where individualism is strongest. Genius abilities can be evident with the right training. Independence is also strongest here. Change in this area can be accomplished only by communicating on a different level of understanding, for example intuition, natural forces, habit, or other unconventional and inexplicable methods. Information is processed with lightning speed showing a higher intelligence at work.

Uranus in Aquarius:

Unselfish in all he does, Toldin can impress you with his loving devotion. Caring for all in the family, his humanitarian efforts do not go unnoticed. Toldin can be seen helping other animals along the way and it is not unheard of for him to bring a few home with him for a free meal. He automatically senses those in need and will try to lend a hand. This does not exclude you and your friends as well. Intuitive to others he senses when there are troubled natures that need some loving attention. Toldin can direct his attention to those individuals providing them with the gift of love. Through this he has accomplished more than he will ever know. Toldin can be quite inventive and original when it comes to getting you to try new things. He is often the first to wake you, as his restless spirit does not allow much time for sleep. His intuitive nature will know when you're ready and remind you with a gentle nudge and his leash when it's time to go. Sometimes his erratic behavior may surprise you, but this is only his response to external stimuli he has tuned in to. Of course this is beyond your comprehension unless you're as tuned in to things as he is. Watch for restless behavior and try to allow Toldin some degree of independence for him to follow his natural calling to be with others.

Uranus in the 9th house:

If Toldin can't be travelling to distant places he is not happy. The love of the open road and exploring the unknown keeps him going. Dog shows entered across the country will be all the more exciting. He loves to travel new paths and will never stop loving adventure.

Uranus Trine Saturn:

Toldin can have a method to his madness. He may seem like he is just going in circles but it's this persistence to detail that will win him rewards. Hard work in the face of change allows Toldin to win despite challenges.

Neptune

Neptune gives you a view into your dog's soul. It shows us the mystical magical side to him that makes him tick. What is Toldin's soul purpose in life? Is it to belong to you or does he have a greater mission? The house that Neptune is found in is where Toldin will sacrifice all to obtain a higher position in your eyes. Neptune takes about 14 years to complete its cycle through one sign. Many generations of dogs will have Neptune in the same sign therefore house placement will be more important, with emphasis on the activities of the house.

Neptune in Aquarius:

Toldin's conception of others is derived from his intuition as well as his other senses. He communicates by telepathy and does not understand why you cannot understand. He feels a part of all beings and the connection he makes with others is quite interesting. Toldin desires to help others and belong to the group. This is quite evident. Activities that are done with large groups of animals can be something Toldin enjoys and looks forward to. Enjoying the feeling of being a part of the masses, Toldin performs best with others.

Neptune in the 9th house:

Toldin dreams of travels that bring him to distant shores. His love of water will have him swimming any chance he can. Even the children's pool may not be safe from Toldin. By boat, car or paw, Toldin will gravitate toward water making every moment count by having you and others join him in the activity.

Neptune Sextile Moon:

Toldin feels right at home with you no matter what kind of mood you're in. Toldin idealizes the female or mother of the household and is often protective of her over others. Toldin's love and need for nourishment can be unsatisfied at times. He may seem to have a bottomless pit to feed but a lot of the satisfaction comes from the affection he is shown with it. Toldin needs to feel like he is loved above everyone else in the household. His undivided attention is yours for life.

Neptune Trine Mercury:

Toldin believes he can outsmart and out-think you all the time. Most of the time he can, but you don't want to take that risk. Although Toldin may be smart enough to find his way home you wouldn't want to risk losing him to a lonely stranger. Quick in response to your calls and intelligent beyond ordinary means, Toldin should be kept busy with chores that require him to use that intelligence. Signals can be accomplished purely on thought transference. Try to develop this early in life by repetitive trials; he will quickly learn to know exactly what you're thinking and what you want.

Neptune Square Venus:

Toldin loves dirt and swimming or any activity that will alter his appearance; this is just what he is looking for. Just don't expect Toldin to stay out of the water after you just shampooed and groomed him for an hour. Toldin can't help it. To him, beauty is all in the eye of the beholder and a nice roll in the dirt never stopped anyone from giving him a kiss before.

Neptune Opposition Jupiter:

Laziness is not uncommon in Toldin, who much prefers to sit by the shore and watch you work. Toldin will be happy if work is limited to chewing on a bone or toy. With a tendency towards overeating his and everyone else's dinner Toldin can gain weight easily. Keep Toldin walking a wild trail or two and it might help keep him trim.

Pluto

Pluto in Toldin's chart shows where he has the greatest potential. Through instruction and sometimes change he can achieve mastery of any skill you teach him. Instinctively Toldin knows, as if from a prior lifetime, exactly how to do things, even if he was never taught before. Never having experienced a specific activity before and without prior knowledge, Toldin can be an expert at this activity expressed by the house in which Pluto is located.

Pluto in Sagittarius:

Toldin has enough adventure in him to provide you with entertainment for life. Almost goofy in his antics he can give you hours of fun. Follow him to wooded paths where Toldin can hunt, trail and raise prey just for entertainment. Provide Toldin with ample outdoor play time where he can roam in the wild.

Pluto in the 6th house:

Obsessive about taking care of other members in the household, Toldin rarely has time for himself. Always the boss, Toldin will be the alpha dog in the house and at work. He is helpful in healing others and would be wonderful at canine good citizen activities. His visits would bring the positive feeling necessary to assist with the healing of those he visited.

Pluto Square Mars:

Don't push Toldin to lose his temper. His intensity may suddenly surprise you. Avoid other animals or interference at meal time. Play time may also be difficult if other animals interfere with what he feels is his. Demonstrate often that you are the boss.

Pluto Trine Jupiter:

Toldin commands attention and this gets heads to turn winning him placements in conformation ring. The powerful appearance Toldin presents can seem much more dangerous than it really is. He may be the size of a Chihuahua but sounds and acts like a German Shepherd. Don't let Toldin overdo it and get himself in trouble with a much larger or more aggressive dog.
